Communications, received 8/10/04

Dear Ms. Saer:

This letter is prompted by the Commission's preliminary review of the notice referenced above. This notice requests information essential to full public disclosure of your federal election campaign finances. An adequate response must be received at the Commission by the response date noted above. An itemization of the information needed follows:

-Any person, group of persons, or qualified non-profit corporation or organization who makes an electioneering communication must disclose their full name and address (and employer and occupation if necessary), as well as the date of public distribution, communication title and covering period. The full name, address, employer and occupation of the Custodian of Records must also be disclosed. (11 CFR §104.20(c)) Your FEC Form 9 received August 10, 2004 fails to include the communication title and the date of public distribution. Please amend your filings to include the missing information.

-When reporting disbursements for electioneering communications, the person, group of persons or qualified non-profit corporation or organization making the communication must disclose the name, state, office, and district (if applicable) of the federal candidate(s) clearly identified in the electioneering communication, as well as the election(s) in which they are candidates. (11 CFR §104.20(c)(5)) On Schedule 9-B of your filing, you have disclosed disbursements for which you failed to include the state and date of disbursement or obligation. Please amend your filing to include the missing information.

Unlike previous election cycles, you will not receive an additional notice from the Commission on this matter. Adequate responses received on or before this date will be taken into consideration in determining whether audit action will be initiated. Requests for extensions of time in which to respond will not be considered. Failure to provide an adequate response by this date may result in an audit of the committee. Failure to comply with the provisions of the Act may also result in an enforcement action against the committee. Any response submitted by your committee will be placed on the public record and will be considered by the Commission prior to taking enforcement action.

If you should have any questions regarding this matter or wish to verify the adequacy of your response, please contact me on our toll-free number (800) 424-9530 (at the prompt press 1, then press 2 to reach the Reports Analysis Division) or my local number (202) 694-1396.

Sincerely,

Madelynn M. Lane
